TREASURY DEPARTMENT
Bureau of the Mint.

FOR RELEASE, MORNING PAPERS,
Tuesday, April 3, 1923.

The Secretary of the Treasury announces that he has approved the recommendations of the Director of the Mint for the transfer of the collection of coins, tokens and medals in the Mint at Philadelphia to the National Museum at Washington. This is a national collection, and therefore most appropriate for exhibition in the National Museum, where it will be open to a larger public than at the Mint. All of the Mints, moreover, are now closed permanently to visitors, and if kept at the Philadelphia Mint the collection would have been inaccessible to the public.
